

Presents:

NURSING GRAND ROUNDS

TOPIC: Alzheimer's Disease & Dementia. Prevalence and Caregiving.

Objectives:

1. Describe Alzheimer's disease and dementia. Recognizing Risk Factors for Alzheimer's and Dementia
2. Define the clinical presentation of dementia and the early symptoms
3. Understanding the most common reason for hospitalization of people with Alzheimer's dementia.
4. Alzheimer's and Dementia Nursing Implications.

GUEST SPEAKER:

Silvia Aninye*, RN, AS, CADDCT, CDP, CDSGF, LNC.

Certified Alzheimer's Disease and Dementia Care Trainer

Silvia Aninye is a Registered Nurse, practicing for over 15 years with a background in the areas of adult and geriatric care. She serves today as an advocate for the Alzheimer's population with certification as a Dementia Practitioner.

For more information on Alzheimer's Disease and Dementia you can reach Silvia on linked: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/silvia-aninye-a1000494>

Thursday December 19, 2019

Presentation 12:00pm – 1:00pm *Lunch will be served

Provider approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing, Provider Number 14590 for 1 contact hours.

Join us at Southern California Hospital at Culver City in the Green Room

West Coast University will be on site sharing information on continuing education.

Any questions please contact Education at Jessica.DelaRosa@schospitals.com, Director of Nursing Education SCH @ Culver City
Hosted by Southern California Hospital @ Culver City Education and Training Department.